

Name _____ Uni _____ Date _____

Degree Program/Department _____

Academic Standing and Department Approval

As Director of Graduate Studies in _____, I certify that this applicant is in good academic standing and has departmental permission to participate in this certificate program.

Signature of Department DGS _____

Check

Attach a one-page rationale explaining how the Certificate in Psychoanalytic Studies would compliment your graduate program, including your expectations for the program.

Upon completion of the Certificate, please submit in writing a comment on the program as a whole, on whether your initial expectations have been met, and how the program affected your overall course of study and intellectual development.

Coursework Requirements

Course Number/Title	Points	Semester/Year	Grade
Core:
CLPS G4200 The Core Concepts of Freud's Thinking (aka Freud)	4
CLPS G4201 The Core Concepts of Post-Freudian Thought (aka post-Freud)	4
At least four (4) elective courses:

Sample Elective Courses for the Certificate in Psychoanalytic Studies

Course Number/Title	Points
ANTH G6650 Psychoanalytic Trajectories: Narrative and Ethnos	3
CLEN G4995 Reading Lacan	3
CLGR G4110 Literature and Psychoanalysis (aka Freud and Jung aka Freud and Foucault)	3
CLGR W4265 Divided Selves: Jews in Modern German Culture	3
CLGR W4620 Psychoanalysis and Social Theory	3
CLME G4020 Hate	3
CPLS G4090 Humanism and the Human	3
CPLS G4240 The Secular Imagination	3
MDES G4050 Freud and Derrida	3
PHIL G9755 Problems in Social Philosophy	3

Please submit worksheet with DGS signature and your one-page rationale for entering the program as soon as you plan to begin the Certificate program. Worksheets should be submitted to the administrative office of the Institute for Comparative Literature and Society. As you proceed through the program, continue to update your worksheet with the ICLS office:

ICLS
HB1-1 Heyman Center
(inside the East Campus Residential Center, Morningside Campus)
Mail Code 5700
(212) 854-4541
icls@columbia.edu

Upon completing the coursework, please submit a one-page evaluation of your academic experience in the PSP to be attached to this worksheet in the ICLS office.