

INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM

AMBEDKAR, DEWEY, AND THE EVOLUTION OF PRAGMATISM IN INDIA

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

SCOTT R. STROUD

Associate Professor of Communication
Studies, University of Texas at Austin

Many know that Bhimrao Ambedkar, chief architect of India's constitution and powerful proponent of rights and respect for India's most oppressed, thought highly of John Dewey, his former teacher at Columbia University, New York. At this international symposium, the keynote speaker sheds light on Ambedkar's time in New York, detailing the two men's educational and intellectual relationship and Ambedkar's appropriation of Deweyan concepts and methods to forge a new vision of pragmatism.
